The lives of the Pons family are changed forever when their 16-year-old daughter Frida, mysteriously goes missing. Frida’s disappearance exposes major family secrets and a web of lies. Soon everyone in the family becomes a suspect, and no one can predict the shocking turn this story will take. As some work hard to hide the truth, the investigation begins to reveal that the culprit is closer than anyone can imagine and that this seemingly perfect world is far from ideal.