

They say every dog has its day... but only one can be “Best in Show!” From the Kennel Club of Philadelphia, The National Dog Show Presented by Purina® returns for its 18th year on NBC. Hosted by actor, author and Broadway star John O’Hurley, the event features two thousand of America’s top dogs from over 170 breeds (including the world’s largest, smallest and most exotic) in a competition that’s both on-the-leash and off-the-hook! As always, “The Dean” David Frei is on hand to provide his signature expert commentary, with Mary Carillo reporting from the sidelines and U.S. Olympic figure skaters Tara Lipinski and Johnny Weir offering behind-the-scenes access as digital contributors. Last year, Whiskey the Whippet took home the grand prize... but which one of these pawsome pups will be next?
