

America's favorite criminal mastermind Red Reddington (James Spader) is back for a new season of thrilling suspense, intrigue and betrayal. This past season exploded when his daughter, FBI agent Liz Keen (Megan Boone), discovered that Reddington was actually an imposter and had him arrested. But her plan quickly spun out of control when it led to a fast-tracked death sentence. Realizing things had gone too far, Liz worked with Red to once again prove Reddington's value to the government, earning him a new immunity agreement. However, in the process, they discovered a dangerous plot against America, perpetrated by high-ranking officials – the very same people who are now in charge of Liz and Red's task force. Can they stop this conspiracy before it's too late? And do we now know the whole truth about Red Reddington? The story continues with even more shocking revelations and game-changing secrets.
