MARKETING LEADERS RECOGNIZE THE NEED FOR CREATIVITY IN B2B ADVERTISING

NBCU Interviews conducted with leading Global B2B Marketers:

‘My career has mainly been in big consumer marketing. I think the data around emotion in B2B is actually stronger…it’s a far bigger decision than reaching out for a packet of detergent.’

John Rudaizky, Partner, Global Marketing

‘If we all recognized our decision makers and target audiences as human beings, we would start to see more and more creativity. I think B2B is ripe for creativity…’

Alicia Tillman, Global CMO

‘I’m pushing my team towards more creativity all the time. Sometimes the data-driven approach takes precedence and people forget the creativity.’

Iris Meijer, Global CMO

Company issues call to shop, share and support Black women-owned businesses, launches grant program with Fearless Fund and educational road show

Black women-owned businesses are vital to our economy and are amongst the hardest hit by the impacts of the pandemic. Today, Mastercard is announcing the Strivers Initiative, a consumer-facing platform, elevating the visibility of Black female business owners overcoming obstacles to maintain and grow their business, as role models for the community and future generations. The initiative will kick-off with a national ad spot featuring Black women business owners from across the U.S. and GRAMMY Award winning singer/songwriter Jennifer Hudson.

The initiative will include a grant program in partnership with Fearless Fund, a VC fund built by women of color for women of color. This will be complemented by a multi-city educational road show driving awareness of the state of women and minority-owned business in cities across the U.S. and providing insights into progressive actions cities can take to foster an equitable business climate.

WHAT TYPES OF CHALLENGES DO B2B MARKETERS FACE IN PIVOTING TO EMPHASIZE MORE PURPOSE-DRIVEN MESSAGING

- Coming Across as Inauthentic
  May be afraid that the message doesn’t reflect what the company truly stands for (ex: greenwashing)

- Creative Production Costs
  Investing in brand creative may be more expensive than product creative

- Low Trust Levels
  Some companies in the B2B Finance and Tech space are already challenged with low trust levels

- Brand vs. Performance Priorities
  Tension between different media goals/objectives
